Master of Landscape Architecture I
2023–24

The MLA I curriculum provides students with an in-depth education in the knowledge and skills of the discipline and provides opportunities for scholarly research. The first year of the curriculum builds fundamental skills in design, history, theory, and digital technologies. Years two and three focus on broadening student abilities in design and scholarship. The MLA I degree typically takes three years to complete.

The MLA I requires 94 credit hours to complete.

Electives

Students are required to complete elective credit hours in the form of graduate seminars and open electives to fulfill the minimum 94 credit hours for the degree. Required courses are to be taken in the terms listed above and elective courses may be taken around these requirements.

Graduate Seminars (12 credits)

Graduate Seminar requirements may be fulfilled by landscape architecture seminars in the form of Advanced Topics in History/Theory (LARCH 5630), Advanced Landscape Technologies Seminar (LARCH 7410), Advanced Landscape Media Seminar (LARCH 7450), Advanced Landscape History & Theory Seminar (LARCH 7630), Seminar in Landscape Architecture (LARCH 7890), or approved comparable graduate-level electives. Seminars are typically 3 credit hours each.

Open Electives

Open electives may be taken from across the university. Courses within landscape architecture must be 5000-level and above (graduate section). Courses outside of landscape architecture may be 4000-level or above and taught by a lecturer/professor.

G3 Options

Students choose from three possible tracks for their G3 course sequence.
